NARRATIVE:

William Messick is a sex offender with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include sexual assault, kidnapping, attempted robbery, possession of an illegal weapon, multiple cases of domestic violence with injury, multiple burglaries, larceny, trespassing, possession of controlled substances, petty theft and contempt of court. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 5 year term for sexual assault. Messick was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on February 9, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in September 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Messick qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of controlled substances is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, sex offender status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
